

Course Fees

The cost for Constructing a Conceptual Framework for Social Action is US$280.00. A Discourse on Social Action costs US$140.00. However, in light of economic conditions, the course is generally discounted for residents of certain countries. The chart below outlines the percentage of the course fee that a student in each country is asked to pay. If the country in which you reside is not listed below, please contact the Information Officer. In most cases, those working for international organizations are charged the full course fee, regardless of their country of residence. Course fees will be confirmed with participants upon acceptance. In addition, for competent students who have some financial difficulties, scholarships may be requested. A financial aid request form can be downloaded and submitted, along with your course application, to info@lazoslearning.org.
